Constitution of a Committee consisting of Judges and lawyers at the appropriate level for dealing with the underlying causes for lawyers' strikes and for evolving appropriate guidelines for preventing indiscriminate closure of courts.

Strength of Judges in Allahabad High Court

619. SHRI SHANTI TYAGI: Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state:

(a) the sanctioned strength of Judges in the Allahabad High Court and the number of Judges sitting now both at Allahabad and Lucknow benches;

(b) whether 5.5 lakh cases are pending with the Allahabad High Court;

(c) whether it is a fact that the lawyers of this judicature have complained of red-tapism, manipulation in the registration of cases and delay in procurement of records etc.; and

(d) if so, what measures Government have taken and propose to take in this regard?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF LAW, JUSTICE AND COMPANY AFFAIRS (SHRI H. R. BHARDWAJ): (a) to (d) The information is being collected and will be laid on the Table of the House.

Muslim Law relating to divorce

620. SHRI SUSHIL KUMAR SAMBHAJIRAO SHINDE:
SHRIMATI VEENA VERMA:
Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government propose to introduce any change in the Muslim Law relating to divorce, to bring it in line with the common marriage and divorce law of land, after eliciting opinions of the minority Community in view of the judgement of the apex body of Muslim religious scholars declaring the pronouncement of 'talaq' three times at one sitting by a husband, as invalid and ineffective; and

(b) if so, what steps are being taken in the matter?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF LAW, JUSTICE AND COMPANY AFFAIRS (SHRI H. R. BHARDWAJ): (a) No, Sir.

Compulsory retirement of Judicial Officers

621. SHRI S. S. AHLUWALIA: Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that Delhi High Court has recently decided to compulsory retire some Judicial Officers of the National Capital Territory of Delhi to weed out corruption from the lower courts;

(b) if so, what are the details thereof;

(c) whether Government propose to advise all the High Courts in the country to initiate similar action; and

(d) if not, the reasons therefor?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF LAW, JUSTICE AND COMPANY AFFAIRS (SHRI H. R. BHARDWAJ): (a) and (b) The Delhi High Court, which under Article 235 of the Constitution is vested with control over the District Courts and Courts subordinate thereto, constituted a Committee to screen the record of work and conduct of all the Judicial Officers of Delhi who had or were completing the age of 50/55 years or 30 years service or 30 years qualifying service for pension. Based on the recommendation of the Committee, the full Court recommended to the Appointing Authority i.e. Administrator, National Capital Territory of Delhi, to retire four Judicial Officers in public interest. The officers were accordingly retired with effect from 1-6-1993.

(c) and (d) The matters relating to recruitment, removal and control etc. of the District Courts and Courts subordinate thereto of a State are the concern of the respective State Government and High Court in accordance with the provisions of Articles 233 to 235 of the Constitution of India.
